The Collegium Institute presents

The Past, Present, and Future of Inter-Faith Relations:

Reflections on the 50th Anniversary of Nostra Aetate

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15TH, 2015
Shotel Dubin Auditorium in Steinhardt Hall (Penn Hillel)
215 S. 39th Street, Philadelphia
5:00 p.m. | Reception to follow

Issued in October 1965, Nostra Aetate was the Second Vatican Council’s seminal declaration on the relationship of the Church to other Faiths. Situated two weeks after the historic visit of Pope Francis to the United States, and two weeks before the visitation of the Dalai Lama, this special event presents an opportunity for the university to take stock of the transformation of the inter-faith relations ushered in by this pivotal church document and to consider what still lies ahead.

FEATURING:

Dr. Philip Cunningham
Professor of Theology and Director of the Institute for Jewish-Catholic Relations at St. Joseph’s University

Dr. Heather Sharkey
Associate Professor in the Department of Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations at the University of Pennsylvania

Dr. Daniel Mark
Commissioner of the United States Commission on International Religious Freedom

Cosponsored by the Religious Studies Department
